

WHAT IS YOUTH DAY?

Bringing together juvenile justice professionals, judges, youth advocates, and current or former system-involved youth to learn together. Attendees will participate in workshops, visit with community resources and hear from keynote speaker Gregory Boyle and break-out sessions on the system you've lived within.

WHEN: Thursday, May 3.

WHERE: 2018 NJJA conference, Younes Conference Center, Kearney, NE.

WHO: Up to 30 youth participants with current and former involvement in the juvenile justice system and their support people.

YOUTH DAY

SPEAK UP! BE HEARD! JOIN THE ACTION!

HOW CAN YOU JOIN?

Reserve spots for up to 3 youth and one staff from your agency by contacting Sarah Mitchell at mitchellsarah468@gmail.com, or by phone at (402) 860-9093 by April 21st.

EXPECTATIONS: Participants are asked to actively participate in conference sessions and coordinate all travel and supervision plans with the staff person supporting them. Supporting organizations are expected to maintain a 3:1 youth to staff ratio.

WHAT'S THE COST: FREE registration with lunch and light refreshments provided. Youth and adults attending beyond the Youth Day will be required to obtain a regular registration at conference rates.

WORKSHOPS

- » Keynote Session - Gregory Boyle
- » Youth Initiated Mentoring
- » Girl Talk
- » Let's Play! Juvenile Justice Jeopardy™
- » Youth and Sexual Trafficking: Exploring the Vulnerabilities and Responding to Needs
- » Sealing of Juvenile Records: Intent vs. Practice
- » Restorative Practices: Victim Youth Conferencing
- » Queer Here, There and Everywhere : Supporting LGBTQ+ Youth Who Are System Involved
- » Advocacy in School Discipline
- » Youth Call to Action
- » Youth Reception